

Homeless Not Toothless Homeless Not Toothless Turns 20

By Yolanda Pulakis | April 18, 2011

Homeless Not Toothless, run by Brentwood dentist Jay Grossman, is celebrating its 20th year of providing pro-bono dental care to the homeless and poor of Los Angeles. Highlights during the organization's 20 years:

- Over $2 million dollars of pro-bono dental care through the dental office of Dr. Jay Grossman in Brentwood
- Over 3-dozen volunteer dentists in the Los Angeles community in addition to Dr. Grossman's services
- Sharon Stone, actress and philanthropist, as a board member
- Expansion to treating homeless and foster children with a satellite clinic being constructed in the city of El Monte to treat the 28,000 children in foster care.
- Featured on Dr. Phil, The Doctors & Entertainment Tonight
- Recipient of KNX citizen of the week

Dr. Jay Grossman and William Macy

- Upcoming 2011 spirit of Valley Interfaith Council award, to be presented by Sharon Stone to Founder of HNT Dr. Jay Grossman on May 19, 2011 for providing 20-years of free dental services to the homeless and poor.
- Dr Jay Grossman is offering free whitening (either in-office laser or take home trays) with a minimum $200 donation to HNT (Valued up to $600)
- Recipient of Talk of The Town customer service award for 2011 (based on BBB score and all on line media reviews)